

Rebel Rescue Non-Negotiable Rules

1. Rebel Rescue will be held every Tuesday and Thursday throughout the year.
2. A student with one or more F's at progress report or the end of a grading period will be placed in the program until the next grade report.
3. A student with three (3) or more missing assignments in one class will be placed in the program until the next grade report.
4. Rebel Rescue begins at 2:50 p. m. Arrive on time. Tardies will be issued for Rebel Rescue the same as for the rest of the school day.
5. Bring ALL of your work, a charged laptop, a book to read, paper and pens/pencils.
6. The Rebel Rescue supervising teacher will help you with questions concerning your school work. Helping you to become successful is the teacher's goal.
7. Turn in any paper assignments completed during Rebel Rescue to the monitoring teacher. The teacher will then distribute the completed assignments to the teachers who assigned it.
8. Students will have a restroom break during Rebel Rescue at the supervising teacher's discretion.
9. Rebel Rescue will end at 4:45 p. m. at which time the supervising teacher will escort the students to the activity bus pick up. If a parent is picking a student up, the parent should meet the student at the activity bus pick up location.
10. Missing a Rebel Rescue session on Tuesday will result in a Friday detention. Missing a session on Thursday will result in a Friday detention. If both sessions are missed in one week, a Saturday School will be assigned.
11. A student is truant when an absence from Rebel Rescue is without the approval of a school official and parent. Consequences for truancy are listed on page 10 of the student handbook.
12. Misbehavior or uncooperative behavior (not doing work) will result in a discipline referral to the principal.
